June 2013 Volunteer of the Month

Trish Palin

Talk about a bright presence that would rival the most extravagant flower garden! Things are never dull when she is around. Trish Palin is a multi-talented breath of fresh air who brings joy wherever she goes (she identifies herself as a Joyologist!).

Among the many talents she has shared with ALC are her deeply thoughtful poetry, her beautiful painted colored rocks with words to uplift the observer, her breathtaking floral arrangements for our altar that she distributes to charities afterward, walking sticks, and many other arts and crafts to delight the eyes.

Her other contributions are serving as a temporary member of the Board of Trustees, and her willingness to travel all over town to distribute flyers for our upcoming programs. She has a real heart for serving others. In summation, she is a Rainbow Lady with a heart of gold at the end of that rainbow!
